Carly and Sonya are talking about the Alhambra Palace, located in Spain, well-known for its wonderful Islamic architectural style.

Carly : My parents and I are planning a trip. We were thinking of going to Spain and visit the Alhambra Palace and fortress complex.

Sonya : I have never heard of that. What a strange name! I can barely pronounce it!

Carly : Yes, the name was given due to its reddish walls. It means Red Castle in Arabic.

Sonya : Is it old? And why is it Arabic, if it's in Spain?

Carly : It was renovated in the 11th century, but it is older than that. It was built for the Arabian generals and princes. The complex has quite an irregular shape, but the intricate architecture is stunning.

Sonya : I wonder why I haven't heard of it. Is it not famous?

Carly : It is pretty famous, actually. It is a World Heritage Site and it's served as inspiration for many songs and stories.

Sonya : Maybe I just don't know much about Europe.

Carly : There is also a beautiful park with fountains and cascades. I can't wait to take a stroll there. Oh and I really would like to see the 12 lion sculptures in the Court of Lions. The white marble makes them impressive.

Sonya : Please take pictures so I can see it. You made me curious now.

Carly : I promise! It might be a once-in-a-lifetime experience, so I can't afford not to take pictures.
